

Proviso: reporter can make transcript after expiration of term.

court and become a part of the record in said case; and said notes or any transcript thereof duly certified by the reporter of said court shall be admissible in any case in which the same are material and competent to the issue therein, with same force and effect as depositions and subject to the same objections so far as applicable; and said original notes, or the transcript thereof, or any part thereof, may be referred to in any bill of exceptions, and when duly transcribed and certified, shall be inserted therein on appeal; and upon demand of any person for a duly certified transcript of any designated portion of the original notes of testimony in any case, it shall be the duty of said reporter to transcribe the portion so designated and duly certify the same, upon payment of fees therefor: Provided, That when the reporter taking the notes in any case in court has ceased to be the official short-hand reporter of that court, any transcript by him made therefrom and duly certified by him under oath as a full, true, and complete transcript of said notes, shall have the same force and effect as though certified in the same manner by the official short-hand reporter of said court.

Approved, March 27, 1880.

CHAPTER 196.

RELATIVE TO ANNOTATED CODE OF WM. E. MILLER.

Sub. H. F. 499. AN ACT Relating to Evidence.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

When compared and certified to by the secretary of state, shall be received in evidence.

SECTION 1. That the "Revised and Annotated Code of Iowa," prepared by William E. Miller, and to be published by Mills & Co., of Des Moines, Iowa, when so published, and certified by the secretary of state to embrace the Code of Iowa of 1873, as amended by subsequent statutes, and the general and permanent statutes of the fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth general assemblies, shall be receivable in evidence in all the courts of this state, with like effect as if published by the state.

Approved, March 27, 1880.